BY

THE COUNTY JUDGE OF TRAVIS COUNTY

STAYS IN FILE

County Judge Order No. 2021-07 Relating to Notices to Vacate, Eviction Proceedings in response to COVID-19

Whereas, on March 6, 2020, a Declaration of Local Disaster was issued by the Travis County Judge to allow the County of Travis ("County" or "Travis County"), Texas to take measures to reduce the possibility of exposure to COVID-19 and promote the health and safety of Travis County residents; and

Whereas, on March 13, 2020, a Declaration of State of Disaster was issued by Governor Abbott to take additional steps to prepare for, respond to, and mitigate the spread of COVID-19 to protect the health and welfare of Texans; and

Whereas, the COVID-19 virus is contagious and spreads through person-to-person contact, especially in group settings; and

Whereas, on March 27, 2020, the President signed the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) (Public Law 116-136) that provides forbearance opportunities for property owners with a federally backed mortgage loan or federally backed multi-family mortgage loan; and

Whereas, on September 4, 2020, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Department of Health and Human Services issued a Temporary Halt in Evictions to Prevent the Further Spread of COVID-19 ("CDC Order"), effective through December 31, 2020 and thereafter extended the deadlines through July 31, 2021, and that required the filing of a declaration related to inability to pay rent; and

Whereas, on January 5, 2021, the US Department of Treasury launched a $25 billion dollar Rental Assistance Program, established by the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021, which will provide payments to assist low-income households impacted by COVID-19 with rent and utility/home energy costs; and

Whereas, on December 17, 2020, January 28, 2021, and March 30, 2021, the County Judge issued Order Nos. 2020-22 and 2021-01, and 2021-03 respectively, relating to Notices to Vacate, Eviction Proceedings, that prohibited certain actions by landlords in order to reduce the spread of COVID-19 and to decrease opportunities for person-to-person contact, with Order No. 2021-03 expiring on May 1, 2021; and

Whereas, on May 1, 2021, the County Judge issued Order No. 2021-04 and clarified by Order 2021-06, continuing County Judge Order 2021-03 until May 31, 2021, but providing some conditions under which a landlord could issue a notice to vacate for failure to pay rent after a specified period of months effective June 1, 2021 to August 1, 2021, but still prohibiting any issuance of a notice to vacate to any tenant that provided landlord the CDC Declaration; and

Whereas, on July 29, 2021 Justices of the Peace in Travis County issued Twelfth Modification of Standing Order regarding Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) Mitigation, Order No. 14 ("Justices of the Peace Standing Order," attached as Exhibit B), consistent with current Texas Supreme Court orders regarding COVID-19 State of Disaster and continued the limitations on the filing of eviction cases, such as automatically abating residential eviction cases if the grounds for eviction are solely for non-payment of rent/housing payments based on income levels of the tenant; and

Whereas, the transmission of COVID-19 remains a threat to the health and safety of the Travis County community; and

Whereas, Austin-Travis County's overall COVID-19 positivity rate was 13.7% for the week ending July 24, 2021, and the Austin Metro Service Area's 7-day moving average of new hospital admissions is more than 40; and

Whereas, to comply with the necessary health protocols recommended by the Austin/Travis County Health Authority, CDC and Texas Department of State Health Services, individuals may be unable to work, which could impact a tenant's ability to pay rent, fees, or other charges associated with the tenant's lease; and certain industries, such as childcare, live-music venues, arts venues, and restaurants/bars were among the industries first detrimentally impacted by the pandemic and are expected to be the last to recover; and

Whereas, COVID-19 continues to menace the health of County residents and the economy, and the Health Authority has advised on the need for continued vigilance by individuals and County businesses in following the recommended health protocols and guidance; and

Whereas, the County Judge has determined that extraordinary emergency measures must be taken to try and mitigate the effects of this public health emergency, prevent the transmission of the disease and to facilitate a response to the public health threat; and

Whereas, there are local orders and ordinances specific to the City of Austin regarding notices to vacate and evictions for properties within the jurisdiction of the City of Austin that attempt to mitigate the effects of this public health emergency and facilitate a response to the public health threat, and which can be obtained from the City of Austin to determine applicability; and

Whereas, pursuant to Government Code section 418.108(g), a County Judge is authorized to control ingress and egress from a local disaster area, and control the movement of persons and the occupancy of premises in that disaster area; and

Whereas, providing a notice to vacate, as the first step to an eviction proceeding, during the disaster period will destabilize the economy and will contribute to additional person-to-person contact, which will effectively undermine the measures taken in past emergencies orders by the County Judge, Mayor of the City of Austin, and Health Authority to combat and prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus; and

Whereas, significant funds, including $10.7 million in federal relief funding designated for an emergency rental assistance program, have been allocated in Travis County to assist renters and landlords to mitigate financial burdens to both parties; and

Whereas, removing a tenant's property or excluding a tenant during the disaster period will contribute to additional person-to-person contact, an increase in household crowding, such as shared household settings or in congregate settings (homeless shelters), or unsheltered homelessness, and increase the risk of spread; and according to Eviction Lab, the eviction orders in place by the County Judge and Mayor have been effective and led to fewer evictions and fewer deaths; and

Whereas, because of these adverse effects resulting from evictions during the disaster period, the County Judge finds it in the best interests of the public's health to extend the emergency order related to Notices to Vacate and Eviction Proceedings for additional periods as specified and clarified in this Order.

NOW THEREFORE, I, COUNTY JUDGE OF TRAVIS COUNTY, PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY VESTED BY TEXAS GOVERNMENT CODE CHAPTER 418, HEREBY FIND AND ORDER THAT:

d. For residential eviction cases heard after October 1, 2020, if a Justice Court finds that the plaintiff/landlord has alleged grounds for the eviction case other than non-payment of rent/housing payments as a pretext due to the defendant/tenant submitting a declaration under penalty of perjury for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Temporary Halt in Evictions to Prevent the Further Spread of COVID-19 Order (CDC Declaration) to the plaintiff/landlord prior to the eviction case being filed or was a pretext to circumvent paragraph 3 of this order or

For the effective suspension, the Travis County Sheriff's Office, Travis County Constables, and all other law enforcement agencies are directed to relate this order to all law enforcement officers requesting confirmation of warrants, so that they are aware not to bring Class C defendants to the jail.

Therefore, all warrants for misdemeanor Class C offenses from the Justices of the Peace are temporarily suspended until October 15, 2021. For the duration of this suspension, the Travis County Sheriff's Office is ordered to not accept a defendant who solely has a Class C misdemeanor warrant from the Travis County Justices of the Peace.

If a justice court limits the hours it is open to the public, notice of such limitations shall be posted on the Justice Court's official website and at its main entrance.

9. This order is in effect August 1, 2021 except as otherwise stated herein, and shall remain in effect until modified/rescinded by the Travis County Justices of the Peace. The time periods in this order may be extended in a subsequent order if required.
